

Trademark Paralegal

Kelly Kurtz

Kelly Kurtz joined Kelly IP in 2016 as a Trademark Paralegal and has more than 25 years of experience in the field. Kelly assists in all facets of the trademark process including the preparation, prosecution, maintenance, and enforcement of domestic and international trademarks. She also performs trademark availability searches and undertakes preliminary reviews and analyses of results, completes domestic and foreign trademark due diligence reviews, communicates with outside counsel, and maintains clients' portfolios, in addition to effectively managing and maintaining the docket database.

Prior to joining Kelly IP, Kelly was a trademark paralegal supervisor at Baker Hostetler LLP in Washington, D.C.

→ Contact Information

→ kelly.kurtz@kelly-ip.com